TSHIFHIWA NETSHISAULU ATTORNEYS INCORPORATED

Our Statement

In all our dealings, we are committed to the highest standards of integrity, with an emphasis on seeking the most satisfactory solution for our clients with the greatest speed and efficiency.

First, to render a service that is personal and individualized. Our clients are assured that, although they may be dealing with a firm, their relationship will always remain personal with the particular professional who is assisting them. To this end, all professional staff members make a point of being available at short notice, and can always be reached by cell phone (except, of course, when engaged in court proceedings). As well as working to eliminate the delays so often associated with the legal process, we are also mindful of our clients' convenience, which often translates into our visiting clients' homes or offices, rather than expecting them to call on us.

Second, to offer a wide spectrum of legal services, so that our clients enjoy the peace of mind that comes with knowing that they can entrust their legal needs to us. Please see the attached schedule of services for more detailed information.
